

Sisters Let Hair Down After Daily Grind

1962

The nuns of St. Pius X, White Bear Lake, have filed civil suit alleging hostile workplace conditions caused by the school's failure to segregate undesirable students. Sister Marie Lazarus - recently revived - responded to the issue: "Lord have mercy. The blessed but misguided Fr. Filbin admits nearly anybody. It's gotten so bad ... we even have to tolerate the young devil himself, Don Hartman." In response, Fr. Filbin tried to change the topic. "I am far too busy attending to the needs of the young girls of my parish. The Sisters should do their job, pray the Rosary, and leave enrollment to me."
